

LAW OF ATTRACTION QUIZ

How Powerful of a Manifester Am I?

© 2010-13 By Rev. “Sage” Taylor Kingsley-Goddard, CHT, RM
Intuitive Law of Attraction HypnoCoach

This simple yet laser-focusing self-assessment will help you clearly determine which of the Three Levels of Law of Attraction (LoA) Manifestation you are currently at. This will empower you to optimally use techniques in the (free) Manifest Anything! ebook, the Prosperous Goddess & Angelic Abundance Activator (A3) programs, and other LoA methods to become an exponentially more successful creator of your dream life.

Directions: Simply circle the # in the left margin if you feel the statement is TRUE. If not, don't circle it. If you are not sure, go with your first inclination.

1. I say affirmations but they don't seem to do very much for me.
2. I know a bit about Law of Attraction, but it just seems like a bunch of New Age snake oil. But I keep hoping things will get better for me.
3. I use Vision Boards, Treasure Maps and/or other visual methods for staying focused on my desires.
4. I have been able to manifest using LoA in some areas of my life so far, but not others.
5. I know that my LoA work is working, and it's just a matter of time before my desire shows up physically.
6. I work really hard at my LoA practices.
7. I have a hard time really feeling the positive energy, the joy and gratitude I'm supposed to be feeling when I say affirmations.
8. I have already identified and reprogrammed my old, negative beliefs about money, love, all the life areas that I am creating change in. And the results are showing up!
9. I feel really alone in all of this LoA stuff. I know other people are doing it, but I don't have a lot of support or good role models or mentors. I feel like I should be able to just do it by myself but yet it's not working very well, so I don't know what else to do.
10. I begin and end each day giving thanks for all the blessings already in my life, and staying focused on my greatest desires.
11. I say affirmations and visualize and strive to stay positive. Sometimes it works, sometimes it doesn't.
12. The strength of my vision gets more powerful and clear each day and I consistently make time to do this, because it works for me. It doesn't feel like work, though. It's fun and empowering.

SCORING:

Use this chart to circle the #s that you agreed with (marked True) to find what LoA Level you are at. For example, if you circled #1 in the Quiz above because it was true for you, circle it below.

Level 1	Level 2	Level 3
Hope	Believe	Know
1 2 7 9	3 4 6 11	5 8 10 12

Level 1: Hope – Identifying Desires. Weakly affirming, “trying.” Novice.

Level 2: Believe – Intending. Focusing. Intermediate. Partially successful.

Level 3: Know – Totally Aligned with Your Intention. Advanced. Successful!

Now notice which Level you circled the most answers for. That’s your primary LoA level. You may have circles in more than one level, and that’s fine. This means you are beginning to transition to the higher level. Read all the sections below for which you had 3 or more circled, and also any that you feel guided to read. Journal about your insights.

As you read the suggestions below, notice what phrases seem to “jump off the page” or create an inner “Yes!” or “Aha!” Take note of those.

GUIDELINES FOR EACH LoA LEVEL:

If you circled 3 or more for Level 1 – Novice:

You are still pretty new to the whole metaphysical, mind-body, quantum realm and are probably caught up in a lot of emotional reaction to all your changes and your desires (need, fear, grief, anger and also excitement, hopefulness and curiosity).

Sometimes the old fears and patterns resurface, and you get frustrated and stressed. But you find yourself thinking and feeling positively more and more. And you are willingly letting go of old false beliefs and dogma so you can access higher truth that truly empowers you. You have hope and are beginning to really understand that you deserve so much more in life.

At this LoA level, your focus is on LEARNING and DESERVING.

Give yourself credit for having an open mind so you stretch outside of your habituated ways of thinking and living. Keep exploring resources that will help you both gain knowledge then apply it more so you really get to the next level, in more ways than one!

You are rediscovering and redefining yourself.

Personal growth workshops, retreats, teleseminars and classes are also crucial at this stage. Get on email and social network lists of any inspirational teachers, authors and speakers that touch your heart and your life. Read their blogs and ezines and sign up for what feels right to you.

You are collecting information and really expanding your mindset. Gathering tools, connecting with other positive people, and learning from those who are already living their dream life are essential steps for you now. Deepening your self-love is also crucial!

Specific recommended resources for you include: The Radical Self-Love Workbook & Kit, The Heartlight & Unconditional Self-Love Meditations and Aligning with Abundance meditation audios, Angelic Abundance Activator, private Omnidimensional Healing Modality™ (OHM) and Intuitive Angelic Miracle Healing™ (I AM) sessions, and Self-Love sessions.

Above all, trust your own inner guidance for what to do when. And ask God/Spirit to provide the resources you need, inner and outer, so you can get the support, training and healing you need.

If you're wondering: "What's next?" If you have several life areas in which you want to create positive change, an intuitive reading can be very useful for higher guidance. An "Awaken into Abundance & Love" reading is a great option or invest in the Psychic Chakra Aura Map (PSYCAM) VIP Week: "The most comprehensive reading you will ever have." This in-depth complete aura, life and soul reading & coaching will reveal exactly what you can do to heal yourself and improve your life in all areas and includes an intuitive colored drawing of your aura and chakras and many pages of channeled guidance from your angels, body and Highest Self.

You will find that the right teachers, tools and information "land in your lap," including this quiz and special report!

Important Note for Level 1:

At this level, many people have a tendency to just read and talk about personal growth techniques ad infinitum without implementing anything. It's crucial to do more than just read this. You have to get past this "head" level of processing. It's crucial that you APPLY what you are learning from this book set and Quiz, and other resources that are truly empowering.

Another important key at this level is that you need to be more discriminating about the people with whom you spend time and share your dreams. Because you are now on your spiritual path, your path of personal evolution and LOVEolution ☺, you will find yourself "outgrowing" life situations and relationships that no longer resonate with who you are now.

As Carolyn Myss said, "You evolve at the rate of the tribe you are plugged into."

You know you can no longer limit yourself, wear a mask, or try to be a round peg in a square hole, just for external approval or to avoid "making waves." You have to be all of who you are, so cultivate relationships with other positive people who are consciously striving to live life as (com)passionate cocreators, as Lightworkers.

Keep building your toolbox, use the tools, and get the healing and guidance you need. Immerse yourself in supportive energy and environments, and have faith. Study and get healing and coaching as you are guided.

You will continue to grow into the beautiful being of light that you truly are. ☺ A beautiful life of abundance and joy lies ahead for you!

If you circled 3 or more for Level 2 – Intermediate:

You've come a long way! But you are eager to get to the next level of success and flow, because you clearly see the discrepancy between what you desire and what you have today. The difference between the two is your emotional pain, which you can allow to either depress you or motivate you. Feel the fire in your belly, put your horns down like the bull, and do it!

You have reached the point where resistance can show up and pushing through the barriers feels like work. But know this: This is truly the most important work you will ever do. Keep believing in your dreams. Now is the time to redouble your commitment level to your own personal growth.

Here are some specific suggestions for how you can do this.

Of course, you will continue to add more tools to your toolbox, continue to study via books, teachers, continue to connect with other people on the path, as you did at Level I.

However, learning per se is not your main focus at this stage because you already have a lot of information, and, really, you know what you need to do. You are beyond just the head level and are living more and more from your heart and soul. You have already healed and learned so much! Yet you still find yourself slipping back into old patterns sometimes, and you know you deserve even more happiness, love and prosperity.

So here is your mission. It's time now for you to:

a) ALIGN. Experience an omnidimensional paradigm shift deep within your being so more of you is lined up with your desires. This requires healing at the cellular, quantum, soul and energetic level, as well as enhancing – and trusting! - your own intuitive abilities.

b) GET -- AND STAY -- IN ACTION MODE -- so you keep moving forward. It's time to get really serious about applying and IMPLEMENTING what you know and really walking the talk more.

You need to go deeper in your healing and inner alignment. You need to get more proactive about consistently taking the steps you need to. And be gentle with yourself along the way. No “shoulding” all over yourself!

The fact that you are already using LoA techniques with partial success has brought you this far already, but if you are really ready to become a more effective manifester and succeed in the life areas that have been more of a challenge for you, you need to heal on a much deeper level to get into INNER ALIGNMENT.

How do you do that? The missing keys for you are reprogramming your beliefs AT THE SUBCONSCIOUS LEVEL (Theta brainwave), and healing your energy field.

Resources for doing this include hypnotherapy and regression work, shamanic soul retrieval, Omnidimensional Healing Modality™ (OHM) which integrates those aforementioned modalities. Also ideal for you is getting more intuitive training, energy healing and self-hypnosis/meditation (such as the Aligning with Abundance audio and other tools in the Prosperity Power Pack and the comprehensive Angelic Abundance Activator course).

If you feel like you are spinning around, unsure what to do next, an intuitive reading can be very clarifying. (See PsyCAM & Awaken in Level I above.)

Know this: The RIGHT healer, coach, program or technique will incorporate many of these methods and will work intuitively and holistically to facilitate what you need right now. Also, when your healing goes deep enough, to the original, root cause (as OHM will do), you can achieve wonderful healing, even of lifelong issues, very quickly.

You are advanced enough to recognize that if you keep doing what you've been doing, you'll likely keep getting what you've already got.

As Albert Einstein said, the solution to any problem always lies at a deeper level than the problem itself, and the definition of insanity is doing the same thing over and over and expecting different results! (Smart man, that Al.)

So if you want to increase the pace and degree of successful manifestation, for abundance, love and all your life goals, going deeper and getting your alignment in place is the key. This inner alignment and healing must also address self-love and deservingness so you become more open to truly receiving all the good stuff from your YOUiverse!

Once you have enough of the inner recalibration and healing in place, you can then successfully move into coaching with an experienced expert who will help you create financial freedom through your soulwork and right livelihood.

Be sure to work with a coach who is personally successful, comes from the heart, is intuitive and has both practical AND energetic tools for you. If you want more success, more love, more money, more quickly, now is the time to invest in your dream life by investing in your personal development. This is a blessing from your present self to your Future Self. ☺

THE SUCCESS FORMULA: DEFINE + ALIGN = SHINE!

How can you deepen your commitment to your path?

Explore the resources that call to your soul. Listen within. Then push through the resistance and do what you know you need to do.

As Eleanor Roosevelt has said, “Do the things you think you cannot do.”

I know you can do it! So take inspired action now ... into more Love, more Abundance and more Joy. You deserve it.

If you circled 3 or more for Level 3 - Advanced:

Congratulations! You already know what you need to know and are – to some degree – already doing what you need to do.

You may not need any further resources. The best way to find out is to use the intuitive methods that work for you to clarify your next step. (I’ll bet you already have such methods or you wouldn’t be at Level 3. ☺)

I use prayer, meditation, divination via intuitive journaling, finger testing (kinesiology), pendulum, asking for divine signs, and other methods to determine my next step. Follow your inner voice...

At this level, what you need most is ACCOUNTABILITY, COACHING & MASTERMINDING so you keep moving forward and go through your Golden Portal into your dream life!

Napoleon Hill, in his seminal work Think and Grow Rich, introduced the world to the concept of the Master Mind, which he defined as:

“Coordination of knowledge and effort, in a spirit of harmony, between two or more people for the attainment of a definite purpose.”

Of course, everyone benefits by working with a mentor and coach. As Jack Canfield, expert in The Secret and best-selling author of the Chicken Soup for the Soul series said on one of his coaching calls I attended recently, everyone needs an accountability partner.

I believe we need more than one. We may master mind, brainstorm and synergistically cocreate with several people in different venues.

For example, if one is blessed to have a spouse who is truly a best friend and a life mate, as I am, he or she will serve as a mirror, a cheerleader and your biggest fan. Together you will cocreate at a much higher level than either of you could do alone. This is why I help people with manifesting soulmate love as well as life purpose, prosperity and spiritual development, because a sacred partnership is an amazingly catalytic force for all the other areas of your life!

You may have a family member, close friend or colleague who serves as an accountability partner or buddy. However, even with a good “sounding board,” such support tends to be sporadic. Few of us have an accountability partner who can consistently drop everything else on their plate to put their full attention on helping us grow our vision and implement our plans.

"One of the single most effective success-accelerators is coaching. A coach or mentor helps breathe life into your intentions, transforming them into concrete goals and then providing you with the information and motivation you need to turn those goals into reality. You achieve your goals and realize your dreams in far less time than you could have on your own. A coach is the catalyst that helps an individual to unstoppable personal achievement. In my opinion, there is no greater reward!"

- Bob Proctor, millionaire and bestselling author

So, for optimal success, Mr. Hill, Mr. Canfield, Mr. Proctor and I encourage you to make a commitment to working collaboratively with a coach as a personal mentor, and/or a mastermind group of kindred spirits.

Tips for Choosing Your Best Coach or MasterMind Group:

Work with a coach or group with whom you resonate, someone who is personally successful in the life area in which you desire positive change.

Make a definite, clearcut, iron-solid mutual commitment to work with someone who is 100% supportive of your biggest dream.

Your right coach or group has no hidden agenda, sees you for who you really are and can be, and provides practical suggestions as well as an energetic container and catalyzing force for your intentions.

Your transformation and success coach also serves as a teacher and an inspiring role model. The beauty of a group is that each person brings their own perspective and skills to the group. Your accountability partners all need to honor and share your passionate intention and really show up for you and themselves. (No negativity or flakes!)

Your coaching or masterminding sessions should occur bimonthly, weekly or more often, and need to be scheduled. Your coach should ask you to make a commitment with each session as to what you will accomplish by the next time you meet, and should hold you accountable and keep you motivated.

Many success experts swear by the power of both coaching and masterminding to help you get yourself to the next level in your life.

I provide both 1:1 coaching and group coaching programs as well as retreats. I also include intuitive readings, channeling, energy healing and training in all my coaching programs. Does this resonate with you? If you are curious, go to www.ProspertyPassionPurpose.com or contact me directly at Sage@LoveandSpirit.org.

Whatever you choose to do next, be sure to use the tools you have, and follow your own inner guidance. If I can go from bankrupt, divorced and disabled to living my dream life, you can too! I abSOULutely know it. When you get into kNOWingness powerfully (Archangel Michael says “wowerfully”), you will live your best life. Truly, your blessed life.

*I welcome any comments on this quiz and report,
about how you are applying this to your life,
and the shift you are creating.*

Abundant blessings on your path!
